

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

IMPERIAL MONEY ORDERS PAID IN TALUKS.

To—The Deputy Commissioners, Treasury Department, Circular No. 1569, dated 21st December 1883.

Several instances having occurred in which Imperial money orders paid in Taluks are not brought into the money order account in the month in which they were paid, thereby causing great delay in the final adjustment of those orders, the Comptroller has the honor to request that all orders paid in Taluks be entered without fail in the money order account for the month in which they are paid. An order which may be open to objection may be detained till such objection is cleared, but a note explaining the cause of detention should in that case be made in the remark column of the account against the entry of the order.

H. HUDSON,
Comptroller.
